

APRIL 2026 – MARKET REVIEW

AssetGrade Market Summary – Impact of Geopolitics and the importance of staying invested

- Gasoline prices in U.S. are at their highest level since 2022. The impact on U.S. producers and consumers is mixed, as the U.S. is now a net producer of oil. However, higher gasoline/energy prices affect the lower to middle income classes and potentially hurt spending on other consumer basics.
- Economic growth should tick up temporarily in the second quarter 2026. Income tax refunds in April and May and potential “tariff rebate checks” should create stimuli for the U.S. consumer.
- Labor picture remains mixed, as two main jobs reports impact one another. Job gains (nonfarm payroll gains) remain low due to changes in U.S. immigration policy and strong gains in productivity due to investment in AI. A lack of available workers means the unemployment rate may fall to 4.0% at end of year.
- Volatility is not for the faint of heart. Despite historical intra-year declines, the S&P 500 Index has posted positive returns the majority of time. If you can weather the storm, it’s important to stay invested, as the patient investor is often rewarded.

Higher oil, energy and agriculture prices have fueled the performance for commodities. Commodities are a good diversifier and hedge against risk.

Fixed income:

The Bloomberg Barclays 1-3 Month U.S. Treasury Bill Index includes all publicly issued zero-coupon US Treasury Bills that have a remaining maturity of less than 3 months and more than 1 month, are rated investment grade, and have $250 million or more of outstanding face value. In addition, the securities must be denominated in U.S. dollars and must be fixed rate and non-convertible.

The Bloomberg Barclays Global High Yield Index is a multi-currency flagship measure of the global high yield debt market. The index represents the union of the US High Yield, the Pan-European High Yield, and Emerging Markets (EM) Hard Currency High Yield Indices. The high yield and emerging markets sub-components are mutually exclusive. Until January 1, 2011, the index also included CMBS high yield securities.

The Bloomberg Barclays Municipal Index: consists of a broad selection of investment-grade general obligation and revenue bonds of maturities ranging from one year to 30 years. It is an unmanaged index representative of the tax-exempt bond market.

The Bloomberg Barclays US Dollar Floating Rate Note (FRN) Index provides a measure of the U.S. dollar denominated floating rate note market.

The Bloomberg Barclays US Corporate Investment Grade Index is an unmanaged index consisting of publicly issued US Corporate and specified foreign debentures and secured notes that are rated investment grade (Baa3/BBB or higher) by at least two ratings agencies, have at least one year to final maturity and have at least $250 million par amount outstanding. To qualify, bonds must be SEC-registered.

The Bloomberg Barclays US High Yield Index covers the universe of fixed rate, non-investment grade debt. Eurobonds and debt issues from countries designated as emerging markets (sovereign rating of Baa1/BBB+/BBB+ and below using the middle of Moody's, S&P, and Fitch) are excluded, but Canadian and global bonds (SEC registered) of issuers in non-EMG countries are included.

The Bloomberg Barclays US Mortgage Backed Securities Index is an unmanaged index that measures the performance of investment grade fixed-rate mortgage backed pass-through securities of GNMA, FNMA and FHLMC.

The Bloomberg Barclays US TIPS Index consists of Inflation-Protection securities issued by the U.S. Treasury.

The J.P. Morgan Emerging Market Bond Global Index (EMBI) includes U.S. dollar denominated Brady bonds, Eurobonds, traded loans and local market debt instruments issued by sovereign and quasi-sovereign entities.
